Fundraising Ideas

Have some festive fun in supporting the appeal

Below are a few ideas and fun activities you and your colleagues could hold over the festive season in raising cash donations for this year's Christmas Toy Appeal.

With monetary donations CVS will purchase gifts and toys on your or your company's behalf.

Staff Christmas Party

Ask for a toy or monetary donation in return for this year's festive fun!

Great Christmas Bake-off

Everyone loves a piece of cake and some people are very competitive about baking! Charge colleagues per slice and ask them to mark each slice out of ten.

Lazy lift

Fine colleagues £1 for using the lift rather than the stairs and get those legs working, earn those mince pies!

'Back to your youth' dress down

Come to work dressed in what you wore when you were 16. Everyone will be getting out those platforms, tank tops, shoulder pads and leg warmers to have a laugh at those youth fashion fads.

Guess the weight of the cake

Bake a cake and charge colleagues to guess the weight. Winner gets the cake.

Raffle

Everyone likes a flutter so why not run a raffle? See if your company have any tickets you could use to raise money for a good cause. OR Ask your boss if they can donate a day's holiday, put it in a raffle, and charge your colleagues for tickets.

Quiz time

See if the boss will be the quizmaster. Include a round on company knowledge to make it more personalised. Ask for a small toy or a cash donation as an entrance fee.

Spot the boss

Collect Christmas baby (or toddler) photos from staff, pin them on a board to guess which is the boss (or who is who) at 50p a go.

Time for tea?

Offer to make everyone cups of tea all day - but charge a small donation per cup.
